

Victorian Vegetable Grower

Notes

30-October-09

Update for Vegetable Growers

Parsnip Canker Field Day

Growers and researchers discuss the results of the Parsnip Canker trial on 21 November. Some treatments reduced canker defects by around 30 %.

Know-how for Horticulture™

Contact: Liz Minchinton
9210 9222

Special Offer to Members

United Equipment, one of the VGA's strongest supporters, is offering a 20% discount to VGA members who switch to United Equipment.

Offer ends 31st Dec 2009

Call Brett Whelan 131 607

Annual General Meeting

Elected at our AGM on 9th October, your VGA committee regularly discuss industry affairs at meetings and with other groups and government officials.

Your opinions matter ... call any committee member and add your views to these discussions.

President: Luis Gazzola (Somerville)

Senior Vice President: David Wallace (Keilor)

Junior Vice President: Rocky Lamattina (Clyde)

Treasurer: David Wallace (Keilor)

Executive Committee:

Craig Arnott (Clyde)

Peter Cochrane (Devon Meadows)

Vince Doria (Devon Meadows)

Silvio Favero (Cranbourne)

Paul Gazzola (Somerville)

Frank Lamattina (Clyde)

Anthony Mason (Werribee South)

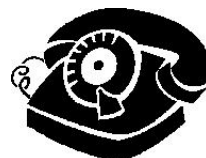

Tom Schreurs (Clyde)

Roger Turner (Pearcedale)

"Victorian Vegetable Growers Notes" is a publication of the Vegetable Growers' Association of Victoria Inc.

Mail Box 111, Melbourne Markets
542 Footscray Road, West Melbourne, Vic, 3003

Website: www.VegetablesVictoria.com.au

Editor: Tony Imeson,

(t): 03 9687 4707

(f): 03 9687 4723

(m): 0414 458 561

(e): contact@vgavic.org.au